Our Talent Sourcing & Social Impact Model

AfrikLink is committed to providing credible, future-ready talent. All professionals featured in our directory are sourced through verified university programs, certified training bodies, and recognized talent institutions across Africa. We work only with trusted partners to ensure that our talent has proven skills, real portfolios, and strong career foundations. This creates a reliable experience for employers seeking excellence and impact.

We also reinvest into the African workforce through training, internships, and community development initiatives — ensuring our hiring model fuels economic empowerment.

Pricing Model

Our pricing is flexible and aligned with your hiring goals. Options include flat monthly fees, performance-based commission models, or bulk hiring discounts.

Pricing and compliance details are available upon request.
